

Streaming meets commerce

We've partnered with Walmart, Instacart, Kroger Precision Marketing, Fandango, Shopify, and Best Buy to enable full-funnel solutions for your streaming TV ads. These solutions include smarter targeting, shoppability, and closed-loop measurement.

Drive intent, increase awareness, measure purchases

Whether you're driving consumers to an e-commerce or point-of-sale transaction, we can help you increase demand and measure that eventual conversion.

We do this by linking our verified identity to the customer records of our commerce and retail partners. By tapping into Roku Commerce Media and creating a measurement plan, you'll know which of your ads led to sales — so you can use that information to optimize your creative and audience strategy with ease.
